

Disclosure Statement for Klaus Keller

For the paper:
Diaz and Keller: A potential disintegration..
(2016 AER papers and proceedings)

This research was supported by the National Science Foundation through the Network for Sustainable Climate Risk Management (SCRiM) under NSF cooperative agreement GEO-1240507, the U.S. Department of Energy, Office of Science, Biological and Environmental Research Program, Integrated Assessment Program, Grant No. DE-SC0005171, and the Penn State Center for Climate Risk Management. Any opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed in this material are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the funding agencies.

Klaus Keller's research has been supported in the past three years from NSF, NOAA, DOE, NASA, as well as the Pennsylvania State University. He is a faculty member in the Department of Geosciences at The Pennsylvania State University with an adjunct appointment in the Department of Engineering and Public Policy at Carnegie Mellon University, and the president and owner of Keller Scientific Consulting, L.L.C.

No other party than the authors had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.