Paco Martorell

June 1, 2016

The paper “Paying to Avoid Recession: Using Reenlistment to Estimate the Cost of Unemployment” was supported by a RAND contract with the Department of Defense. Data was provided by DMDC and SSA. Data access agreements stipulate that we cannot share this data.

As a RAND employee, Paco Martorell received salary support from this contract but has otherwise received no financial support from these or any other agencies.

The research for this paper was conducted as part of a contract from the Dept of Defense to RAND, which had IRB approval under the title “Long-Run Economic Well-Being of Enlisted Veterans.”
