

Disclosure Statement “(Mis)Allocation, Market Power and Global Oil Extraction ”

I declare that I received no financial or in-kind compensation, totaling more than $10,000 in the past three years, from any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article above. Financial Assistance supporting the project was received from Princeton University’s Industrial Organization Group, the NSF (SPS #220783) and an FWO Odysseus Grant. During the last three years I have provided consulting services to the US Federal Government and the Canadian Government, and have been a senior advisor to Cornerstone Research in relation to their antitrust practice.
