

Disclosure Statement for the article

Entertainment, Education and Attitudes Towards Domestic Violence

For the research described in the submitted manuscript I did not receive financial support from any external source.

The study was approved by the National Health Research Ethics Committee of Nigeria (Approval No. NHREC/01/01/2007-14/07/2014), by the Ethics Committee of Bocconi University (Declaration 10/10/2014) and by MIT Committee On the Use of Humans as Experimental Subjects (COUHES Protocol 1401006127).

I have not received any financial support in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like from any interested party, where an “interested” party is any individual, group, or organization that has a financial, ideological, or political stake related to the article.

I am a director and board member of J-PAL. J-PAL has an interest in the use of RCTs in evaluating programs but it has no stake, financial or otherwise, in the results generated by the RCT.

The above disclosures also apply to any close relative or partner of mine.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.
