

Disclosure Statement

David Autor, 2019/03/07

“Work of the Past, Work of the Future”

1. Sources of financial support for the research.

Autor acknowledges financial support from Accenture LLP, the IBM Global Universities Program, the Schmidt Futures Foundation, and the Smith Richardson Foundation.

2. Each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I list below all parties from which I have received $10K+ in the last three years. I do not think that any of these entities is an “interested party” but I am erring on the side of completeness:

- a. Gates Ventures
 - b. The Leigh Agency
 - c. Manufacturers Alliance for Productivity and Innovation
 - d. Techint Group
 - e. ThinkRun Japan
3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.
 - a. Co-Director, MIT School Effectiveness and Inequality Initiative
 - b. Co-Director, NBER Labor Studies Program
 - c. Co-Director, JPAL North America Work of the Future Initiative
 - d. Co-Director, MIT Work of the Future Task Force
 - e. Trustee and Board Member, the Urban Institute
 4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

None.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

6. IRB approval

This project uses exclusively public use government survey data.
