

Paper Title: “Profit Shifting in a Globalized World”

Disclosure Statement

I acknowledge the financial support of the Lee and Brena Freeman Faculty Research Fund at the University of Chicago Law School for my general research activities. The research reported in this paper did not receive any specific grant from funding agencies in the public, commercial, or not-for-profit sectors.

I received financial support from the British Academy for participation in a project entitled “The Future of the Corporation” in 2018. I received financial support from the Robert D. Burch Center at UC Berkeley, the Penn Wharton Public Policy Initiative, and the Urban-Brookings Tax Policy Center for participation in an edited book project “Economics of Tax Policy” in 2015-2016. I received an honorarium from the Study Center, Gerzensee (Switzerland) in 2018.

I serve as a member of the Advisory Board of the Urban-Brookings Tax Policy Center and as a member of the Scientific Advisory Board of the Mannheim Taxation Science Campus (in Mannheim, Germany). I have also served in the past as a member of the Board of Directors of the American Law and Economics Association, a member of the Board of Management of the International Institute of Public Finance, and a member of the Board of Directors of the National Tax Association.

No other party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

Dhammika Dharmapala