

September 16, 2020

Disclosure Statement for American Economic Review Manuscript “Employer Consolidation and Wages: Evidence from Hospitals”

To the editor:

Below are disclosure notifications for the paper referenced above. These answers correspond to the AEA’s disclosure policy questions, listed at <https://www.aeaweb.org/journals/policies/disclosure-policy>.

1. I did not receive any financial support for my work on the paper referenced above.
2. I have not received any financial support in the past three years from a party that would have a financial, ideological, or political stake in the paper referenced above.
3. I am not an officer, director, or board member in a profit or non-profit organization that has a relevant relationship to the contents of the article referenced above.
4. None of my close relatives have received any financial support for my work on the paper referenced above. None of my close relatives have received any financial support in the past three years from a party that would have a financial, ideological, or political stake in the paper referenced above. None of my close relatives are an officer, director, or board member in a profit or non-profit organization that has a relevant relationship to the contents of the article referenced above.
5. No party besides the authors had a right to review the paper prior to circulation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "E. Prager". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Elena Prager