

Disclosure Statement for Marta Rubio-Codina

Manuscript: Appropriate Institutions? Traditional Governance and Public Goods Provision in Oaxaca, Mexico

By: Gustavo Bobonis, Juan Camilo Chaparro, Marco Gonzalez-Navarro and Marta Rubio-Codina

Washington, DC, December 20 2020

- Relevant relations for Marta Rubio-Codina:

- The author declares she has no relevant material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.
- The author declares not to have any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of any profit-making or non-profit entity whose policy positions, goals or financial interests related to this research.
- None of the author's close relatives have any relevant paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of any profit-making or non-profit entity whose policy positions, goals or financial interests related to this research.

-Prior review:

- The authors were free to write the paper without any external party reviewing the paper prior to circulation.
- The opinions expressed in this publication are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the IDB, its Board of Directors, or the countries they represent.

-Financial support:

- The author did not receive any direct financial support for this project.

-IRB approval:

- No IRB approval was requested for this research because all the data used for this project is publicly available.

Marta Rubio-Codina
Economics Senior Specialist
Social Protection and Health Division
Inter-American Development Bank