

“Do Two Electricity Pricing Wrongs Make a Right? Cost Recovery, Externalities, and Efficiency”

AUTHOR DISCLOSURE OF SEVERIN BORENSTEIN

This research was supported in part by a grant from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and a gift to the Energy Institute at Haas from Google.

Borenstein served on the Advisory Council of the Bay Area Air Quality Management District, which provides scientific advice on air pollution regulatory issues faced by the management and Board of Directors of BAAQMD, from 2015 to 2020. Since 2019, Borenstein has served on the Board of Governors of the California Independent System Operator. Borenstein is a faculty director of the Energy Institute at UC Berkeley’s Haas School of Business. A list of organizations and individuals who have contributed to the Energy Institute in the last three years may be found at <http://ei.haas.berkeley.edu/give/index.html/>.
