Dear Editor,

Please consider this my disclosure.

1. No funding was received to support this research;
2. I have not received any funds from any individual, group or organization that has a financial ideological or political stake related to the article. I do not that I am the Editor of Economic Inquiry and an employee of the Western Economics Association International (WEAI) who owns the journal, but this is not related to the article itself.
3. I am an employee of the WEAI, but that involvement is not related to the article.
4. I have no close relatives or partners related to the paper.
5. No party had the right to revise the paper prior to its circulation

Sincerely,
