Disclosure statement

The author declares that she has no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in the paper “Breaking Gender Barriers: Experimental Evidence on Men in Pink-Collar Jobs”.

Part of the data used in the paper are proprietary and were obtained as part of a research collaboration. The agreements with the partner organization do not involve a request for review of the findings prior to their release. However, they include a request for review of the paper prior to its release exclusively for the objective of ensuring that the anonymity of the organization is not unintentionally compromised.

IRB approval was obtained by the London School of Economics Research Ethics Committee in August 2017 (ref #000611).

Sincerely,
