Disclosure Statement for “Digital Information Provision and Behavior Change: Lessons from Six Experiments in East Africa”

Raissa Fabregas, University of Texas at Austin

Funding that supported one or more of the experiments in this paper was received from ATAI, 3ie, the Dioraphte Foundation, Unorthodox Philanthropy, PxD and an anonymous donor. None of the funders had the right to request changes in the analysis. Project data was shared by 1AF.

I am a researcher collaborator with PxD, but apart from funding for the present research study, no other direct financial compensation was received from them.
