

Disclosure Statement: Stephen Stapleton

“Labor Market Attachment and Perceived Barriers to Work Among Homeless Families”

January 20, 2025

1. Source of financial support for the research

None.

2. Each author of a submitted article should identify each interested party from whom he or she has received significant financial support, summing to at least $10,000 in the past three years, in the form of consultant fees, retainers, grants and the like.

I have not received more than $10,000 in the past three years from any party.

3. Each author should disclose any paid or unpaid positions as officer, director, or board member of relevant non-profit organizations or profit-making entities. A “relevant” organization is one whose policy positions, goals, or financial interests relate to the article.

I do not hold such positions.

4. The disclosures required above apply to any close relative or partner of any author.

I have no spousal or family-related potential COIs.

5. Each author must disclose if another party had the right to review the paper prior to its circulation.

The Illinois Department of Human Services funded the pilot this study is based on and has the right to review this manuscript and can reject the inclusion of content only on the grounds of confidentiality.

6. IRB approval.

This study has been reviewed and approved by the University of Chicago IRB under number IRB23-0562.

7. Data and Code Availability.

We will provide anonymized data and code necessary to replicate our analyses.