

AEA Disclosure Statement for Francesina R. Jackson

Manuscript Title: Metacognitive Awareness and Academic Performance

This project was funded by a grant from the Department of Education First in the World Program, announced on September 21, 2015. Study Protocol #7DF5F9 was approved by the Spelman College Institutional Review Board on December 14, 2015. The views expressed in this manuscript are those of the authors and do not necessarily represent those of the funder or any organization with which the authors are affiliated. I retired from Spelman College in 2020 but continue to teach an online course through the eSpelman program. During the time of my retirement, I have not received financial support from any educational organization. Prior to my retirement, I served at Spelman College as Professor and Chair of the Teacher Education Program, Director of the Student Success Program, and Principal Investigator of the First in the World Project. Since retiring, I have had several book reviews published in Multicultural Perspectives, the official journal of the National Association for Multicultural Education.