

Disclosure Statement for Submission to the American Economic Journal: Economic Policy

“Communication Barriers and Infant Health:

The Intergenerational Effect of Randomly Allocating Refugees Across Language Regions”

Johannes Kunz

1. I received no financial support for this research.
2. I received no significant financial support from an interested party.
3. I have not held any positions in non-profit or profit-making entities related to this research.
4. I have nothing to disclose for close relatives or partners.
5. The Federal Statistical Office of Switzerland (BFS) agency provided the data.

The Monash University Human Research Ethics Committee (No. 21726) reviewed and approved this project.