

Disclosure statement – Tomer Ifergane

This disclosure statement is submitted along with the manuscript of 'Time to Say Goodbye: The Macroeconomic Implications of Termination Notice'

Financial

I hereby state that I have received or have been approved the receipt of the following funding

1. Israel Science Foundation (ISF) – personal research grant - "Macroeconomic stability and employment protection mandates: an optimal design approach", Israel Science Foundation, grant No. 922/23 for the years 2024 – 2026 and the total amount of 510,000 ILS.
2. Israel Science Foundation (ISF) - New researcher equipment grant – "HPC for computational macro", Israel Science Foundation, grant no. No. 2713/23 for the year 2024 and the total amount of 47,700 ILS.
3. Israel Science Foundation (ISF) - post-doctoral fellowship in the amount of 155,000 ILS per 1 year starting Oct. 1st, 2022, grant No.51/22.
4. Department of Economics at Ben-Gurion University – post-doctoral fellowship funding in the amount of ILS 67,914 (2022).
5. Israeli Council for Higher Education - PBC - Ph.D. candidate scholarship for excellence in research of the Israeli economy in memorial of Gad Bone, Micha Gilad, Be'eri Hazak, and Amos Miler, in the sum of 100,000 ILS (2020 – 2021).
6. National Insurance Institute of Israel research grant for Ph.D. candidate 30,000 ILS (2019).
7. Erasmus+ scholarship – Two scholarships at the amount of 1,650 EUR each for participation in Radboud University international summer school (2018 & 2019).
8. The Hubert H. Humphrey Center for Social Research (part of Ben-Gurion University) Outstanding Ph.D. candidate scholarship 11,000 ILS (2018 - 2019).

Academic affiliations

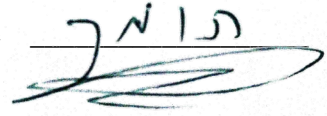

1. I will begin employment at The Eitan Berglas School of Economics in Tel Aviv University in the position of senior lecturer (tenure-track) starting Oct. 1st 2024.
2. I am currently employed at Department of Economics at Ben-Gurion University in the position of lecturer (tenure-track) starting Oct. 1st 2023, and until Sept. 30th 2024.
3. I am an associate member of the London School of Economics and Political Science – Centre for Macroeconomics (CFM).
4. I was a post-doctoral fellow at the London School of Economics and Political Science – Centre for Macroeconomics (CFM).
5. I was a Ph.D. candidate in the Department of Economics at Ben-Gurion University from 2016 until I completed my studies on 2021.

Employment history

1. I am currently employed at Department of Economics at Ben-Gurion University in the position of lecturer (tenure-track) starting Oct. 1st 2023.

2. I was employed as a TA in the Department of Economics at Ben-Gurion University from 2018 until 2021.
3. I served in the Israeli Ministry of Defence - Budget Department from 2013 until 2018 and am in reserve at present.

Tomer Ifergane

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Tomer Ifergane', with a large, stylized flourish underneath.