

Disclosure Statement of Michael D. Whinston for “Tying with Network Effects”

I am the Sloan Fellows Professor of Management at the Sloan School of Management, MIT and Professor of Economics in the Department of Economics at MIT. I am also a partner at the economic consulting firm Bates White. I testified on behalf of the Department of Justice in U.S. v. Google. I have no financial interests in the research conducted in this article.