

Disclosure Statement

“Sustaining International Rules in a Multipolar World”
Emanuel Ornelas

I declare that I have received financial support for the research related to the paper “Sustaining International Rules in a Multipolar World” from the Brazilian Council of Science and Technology (CNPq). I have no relevant or material financial interests that relate to the research described in the paper. No IRB approval was obtained for the project because the research does not involve human subjects.
