To whom it may concern,

The data used in the paper "The Unintended Consequences of Academic Leniency" were obtained from the North Carolina Education Research Data Center (NCERDC), Duke University. In accordance with our data licensing agreement with NCERDC, we note that sharing the restricted-access data used in this manuscript is strictly prohibited.

Prior to the dissemination of this study NCERDC reviewed the manuscript to ensure that the confidentiality of the data is not unintentionally compromised.

The research described here was reviewed and approved under Protocol 844746 by the University of Pennsylvania Institutional Review Board, which is guided by the ethical principles set forth in the Belmont Report.

The authors have no known competing interests, material or otherwise, to disclose.

Sincerely,

A. Brooks Bowden
