Re: AEJ-Applied Submission: “Hospitals as Insurers of Last Resort”

To whom it may concern:

Below are disclosure notifications for the paper referenced above which has been submitted for possible publication in the AEJ-Applied. These answers below respond to the five specific numbered questions contained in the American Economic Association disclosure document that can be found here, http://www.aeaweb.org/aea_journals/AEA_Disclosure_Policy.pdf.

1. I did not receive any financial support for my work on the paper referenced above.
2. I have not received any financial support in the past three years from a party that would have a financial, ideological, or political stake in the paper referenced above.
3. I am not an officer, director, or board member in a profit or non-profit organization that has a relevant relationship to the contents of the article referenced above.
4. None of my close relatives have received any financial support for my work on the paper referenced above. None of my close relatives have received any financial support in the past three years from a party that would have a financial, ideological, or political stake in the paper referenced above. None of my close relatives are an officer, director, or board member in a profit or non-profit organization that has a relevant relationship to the contents of the article referenced above.
5. The only party that has had the right to review the contents of the paper prior to circulation is our data provider AHA. This was only to ascertain that their data had been properly cited and that there were no factual errors in the description of their data. The AHA did not request any changes in our draft.

Sincerely,

Craig Garthwaite
