

Disclosure Statement

Real Effects of Information Frictions: “When the States and the Kingdom became United”

Claudia Steinwender

I have nothing to disclose about relevant interest from other parties about this research other than that the research for this paper was partly undertaken while the author received the Royal Economic Society Junior Fellowship, an Economic Research Studentship from London School of Economics and while the author was an IES postdoctoral fellow at Princeton University. The paper has been awarded the Best Paper Award at RIEF XIIIth Doctoral Meeting in Paris, the Klaus-Liebscher-Award of the Austrian National Bank and the 2014 WTO Essay Award for Young Economists.

Claudia Steinwender