

DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

American Economic Association

“Firms, Informality and Development: Theory and evidence from Brazil”

Gabriel Ulyssea

To whom it may concern,

I hereby declare that I have no relevant, material or financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper.

This paper is a result of the research done during my Ph.D. in economics at the University of Chicago, where I received financial support from CAPES, IPEA and The University of Chicago to fund my education, which is gratefully acknowledged.

I declare that I have not received significant financial support related to the above article from any interested party.

This paper uses restricted access data from the Brazilian Ministry of Labor, which is nevertheless available to any interested researcher who submits a research proposal. The Ministry of Labor has not reviewed this paper and neither has any other potentially interested external party. It has only been reviewed by my colleagues, who are cited in the paper's acknowledgements.

Gabriel Ulyssea

Rio de Janeiro, January 24th, 2018