- Pick up a FREE copy of the OECD Demo Diskette.

This year it features information on several new products including the OECD Business Sector Database, OECD Health Data, Flows and Stocks of Fixed Capital, DAC Aid Performance, and Basic Science and Technology Statistics.

- See a demonstration of the new OECD Health Data diskette. This extensive collection of data on health care expenditure, personnel, and length-of-stay and costs for various procedures covers the U.S. and other industrialized countries. It is the first OECD data product to include software that enables you to perform analysis and produce a variety of tables, charts, graphs, and maps. The software also supports export of data in Lotus and DBase formats.
- See copies of the latest OECD publications, including the just released OECD Economic Outlook.
- Take advantage of a special offer on the OECD Economic Outlook on Diskette: Seven Major Countries Edition.
