

PLANNING

PROGRAMMING

BUDGETING

PPPB

A Systems Approach To Management,
Edited by Fremont J. Lyden & Ernest G. Miller,
 Graduate School of Public Affairs,
 University of Washington

An effective exploration of the relevance of PPB as a tool for government decision making, the text was specifically designed by the editors "to provide a starting basis for an educated understanding of PPB and its implications in managerial as well as policy contexts."

350 pp., $6.00 Hard Cover, $4.50 Paper Bound

Also Available (Hard Cover Only):

Martin Weingartner, Mathematical Programming and the Analysis of Capital Budgeting Problems (with three related articles) $6.00

Donald Farrar, The Investment Decision Under Uncertainty $4.00

Charles Bonini, Simulation of Information and Decision Systems in the Firm $5.00

Andrew Stedry, Budget Control and Cost Behavior $5.00

Oliver Williamson, Economics of Discretionary Behavior $5.00

MARKHAM

Publishing Company, 863 N. Dearborn
 Chicago, Illinois 60610

JOINT PROGRAM
 ALLIED SOCIAL SCIENCE
 ASSOCIATIONS

WASHINGTON D.C.
 DECEMBER, 1967

