

Discourse Statement – Franziska Mager – “Why are relatively poor people not more supportive of redistribution? Evidence from a randomized survey experiment across 10 countries.”

The author declares that she has relevant and material financial interests that relate to the research described in this paper. She is employed as a Researcher at Oxfam Great Britain (OGB). However as part of the agreement that was reached with OGB, the research was conducted entirely independently. OGB agreed for the research to be published regardless of the findings, prior to the survey experiments taking place.
